1884—1904

Local Pension Examiners Round Out Twenty Years Service

The Maysville Board of United States Examining Surgeons round out this month the twentieth year of its existence, having been organized in April, 1884.

The Ledger Man, who keeps in touch with important events, recalls the fact that two of the original appointees are still members of the Board, and when they began work there were probably 200,000 names on the rolls, but the refrain of the old war song was still ringing in our ears: "We are coming, Father Abraham, six hundred thousand more."

The names on the list now probably exceed 800,000.

Every pensionable soldier knows that the best protection of the fund from which he is paid is an honest, fearless and capable Board.

It is a solid buffer against the exploiter and the cheat.

Every claimant makes his own record.

He makes his statement voluntarily in writing and under oath, and this is filed precisely as given in the Bureau of Pensions at Washington.

By this record all claims must stand or fall. The claim may change but the record does not. It is there to vindicate or convict.

There is no record or tradition of any attempt on the part of a soldier to beat the Government through the medium of this Board—a circumstance equally honorable to the soldier who applies for a pension and the Surgeons who report the case.

In one instance, however, there came under its observation one case in which the chief beneficiaries of the pension—a very large one—were the claimant's able-bodied and dependent sons.

A Board is strictly forbidden to reveal the result of an examination in a given case.

It simply describes the disabilities, the Bureau does the rest.

Any crookedness in the record is revealed in the result.

This record is always under the Commissioner's eye to confirm, acquit or condemn.

The Secretary of the Maysville Board is Dr. Anderson N. Ellis. He is also the special examiner in special cases. His experience in the regular and volunteer service adds notably to his qualifications as an examiner for pensions.

The Ledger Man makes grateful acknowledgments to the busy Secretary for his many courtesies to an inquisitive "scooper."

THE LEDGER closes with a health to the very capable and popular Board which began its useful labors in Maysville just twenty years ago.

No disparaging criticism of its character or its methods has ever proceeded from any reputable source.

It has been within its province a judicious almoner of that National bounty, which for many years has flown in generous streams upon the remotest population of the great Republic.

Unlike most official expenditures or appropriations it returns directly to the pockets of the people, and is a lawful recognition and reward of actual personal services in defense of the Constitution and the laws.

The Maysville Board has for many years enjoyed the reputation of making thorough examinations and of treating every claimant with civility, consideration and respect.

These are characteristics which every honest claimant appreciates.

The Republicans of Mason county are called to meet in Mass. convention at the Courthouse in Maysville, Ky., on Saturday, April 23d, 1904, at 1 o'clock p. m., standard time, to select Delegates to the State Convention to be held in Louisville on May 3d, 1904, for the purpose of selecting Delegates and Alternates to the Republican National Convention in the city of Chicago, Ill., June 21st, 1904, also, for the purpose of selecting Delegates to the Convention to be held in Maysville, Ky., April 26th, 1904, for the purpose of selecting Delegates and Alternates from the Ninth Congressional District to said Convention.

Further, the Republicans of the various voting precincts of Mason county will meet at the last voting place of their respective precincts for the purpose of selecting Precinct Chairmen for the ensuing four years, which Precinct Convention will report to said Mass. Convention of April 23d, 1904.

W. D. COCHRAN, Chairman.

HON. WILLIAM C. HALBERT of Vanceburg has written a Brief that makes the unconstitutionality of the Beckham County Bill so plain that even a clodhopper can understand it; but the Court of Appeals may not be able to see it that way.

AN esteemed friend of THE LEDGER appears just now to be extremely solicitous for the "pauper" workmen of Maysville. Moderate but fair wages are not necessarily conducive to pauperism, nor are big wages usually the highway to wealth, or even comfortable living. Maysville is no exception to the rule; and it will be found that the best paid men in all trades and everywhere, are the ones who enrich the saloons and impoverish their own homes, and that the sober fellow with a moderate income is the one who, in a few years, owns the house that shelters his family. True, many of the moderately-paid workmen follow the lead of the big salaried chaps in riotous living; and it's a sight how they do like to furnish fine houses and horses and carriages for others, while they walk through life—and are often buried at the expense of their friends.

From a common-sense standpoint, and from the facts and figures presented by the Hon. W. C. HALBERT of Lewis the Beckham County Bill is made to look like thirty cents.

GOVERNOR BRADLEY will be one of four candidates before the coming State Convention for Delegate-at-Large to the Chicago Convention. He is not making the race against any other candidate, but is making it upon his own merits. His candidacy can in no wise affect the selection of the Delegates from each Congressional District; and Mason county owes it to Governor BRADLEY, no less than to herself, to instruct her Delegates to vote for him when she holds her County Convention on April 23d. There never was a better time than right now for the Republicans of Kentucky to get together—and to stay got together.

Political Pickings

CONCEALING DISHONESTY.

Lexington Herald.

Our readers may remember that in the Goebel Legislature a prominent Representative voted the vote of an absent colleague on the Goebel Reward Commission—we believe this was the bill then pending. When he was charged with it he never denied it. It is said he privately defended it, and, at the most, considered it a trivial matter. At the late session on a certain bill the names of four absentees were voted and entered on the journal. Of course, those who voted these absentees knew that they committed a disgraceful act. Those who heard them and knew it were as guilty as those who did it. These names were stricken from the journal, and there, it was said, the incident closed. But it has no more closed than the former incident, which involved the personal honor of the Representative who voted an absent colleague. The honor of the Speaker and of the House demanded an investigation of the facts, and the public exposure of the guilty persons, if not their expulsion from the House.

DOUBLEYOUAITCHDOUBLEPEEDDOUBLEE

Editor Ledger: Our merchants look like fleeced lambs on a rainy day in March from the aerial puffs of a monopolistic newspaper advertisement seeking trade from an impoverished, under-paid skilled mechanic and laboring man.

Of all the brazen-faced affrontry to be told and harped in your ears is that old rotten chestnut that smells like a fish-monger on a hot day in June, that I shall prevent the crying children's father from working for you at your price, if he is so disposed. Yes! I say yes in the same sense that you and your Bulletin newspaper brother have a right to meet and say what I shall pay you for your services in advertising my wares. I say if preaching a man's soul out of Hell from the pulpit is God's law, and I clothe and feed that soul to accept this divine law by the teachings of the same book of right and wrong to fellow man, why you fly into a rage and beat the air about liberty and the deprivations of a man to conduct his own business.

Oh that great Lincoln! Let us quote him on this subject of liberty of man to labor: "With some the word liberty may mean for each man to do as he pleases with himself and the product of his labor, while with others the same word may mean for some men to do as they please with other men and the product of other men's labor. The sheep and the wolf are not agreed upon a definition of the word liberty."

What burning broadsides of eloquence to be delivered before men who three years before were ready, and did, try to assassinate him for uttering the same ideas of liberty in his debates with Stephen A. Douglas. I do not remember his exact language in the last days of his administration, but he predicted when he saw the Confederacy was doomed that a greater evil than war was before us, and that evil was capital and would be combined for the debasement of those liberties that a free republic throws around the man and his family that work with their hands.

When Grant, at the head of the conquering heroes of Appomattox, was marching home he was met by a delegation of wealth from the East and was informed by innuendo that he could proclaim himself Dictator of the Republic on proclamation before the army was disbanded. Lincoln had been assassinated. Johnson was an extremist of the slave driving class of today, ready to hang those that Grant had conquered and sent to their homes in pursuit of happiness, and it may have been seen by these wise men of the East that reconstruction by the hands of a Dictator with a wealthy regime of Lords and Barons was the quickest way to restore the Government.

Tradition makes this answer. I will hang the first man that makes the proposal to me. Wealth and combinations of wealth today say that we will throttle the offsprings of the army that Lincoln immortalized at the dedication of Gettysburg's gory field, the army of prosperity that not only slumbers at Gettysburg but they bleach the fields at Petersburg, Melvern Hill, Richmond, Shiloh, Stone's River, Chickamauga, and on and on throughout the fairy lands of southern climes to northern cold vales does this spirit rise from tombs that fought for that liberty, that man could live for tomorrow and tomorrow would bring peace comfort and a heritage to those which that blood and consanguinity represents the smoldering forms that I present you.

If you throttle my birthright and that birthright shall say, "You shall not enslave my weakened mind and subdue the spirit of our fathers in our distressed condition to feed and clothe our families," so you say that the defalcations that Lincoln and Grant place upon labor and liberty are not the heritage they leave to me to follow? "It is in vain you talk of the goodness and benevolence of an Omniclient Ruler to him whose life from the cradle to the grave is one continual scene of pain, misery and want."

In answer to your criticism of my last communication, is that I have heard of the lawyer that took a fee from plaintiff and defendant, but have never had the pleasure of seeing him, if such it could be palled. C. M. W.

FOUR YEARS MORE

Niece of General Grant is Postmaster in West Virginia

Mrs. America M. Baldwin is and has been the Postmistress at St. Albans, W. Va., for 10, these many years. Recently the politicians of that city made strenuous efforts to have her removed and in her stead a man to take the position. Mrs. Baldwin won out all the same and received her commission the other day for four more years.

Mrs. Baldwin is a native of this city, being a daughter of Roswell Grant, long since deceased, and a niece of General U. S. Grant.

The secret of her long retention in office is due to the fact that her cousin, General Grant, when President, left a letter in the archives at Washington requesting of the Postmaster General that his cousin, Mrs. Baldwin, be kept in the Postoffice at St. Albans so long as she faithfully administers the office.

So far the wishes of the great man have been complied with, both by Republican and Democratic Administrations.

GO TO THE RESCUE

Don't Wait Till It's Too Late—Follow the Example of a Maysville Citizen

Rescue the aching back. If it keeps on aching, trouble comes. Backache is kidney ache. If you neglect the kidney's warning, Look out for urinary trouble—diabetes. This Maysville citizen will show you how to go to the rescue.

Edward Oliver of 108 West Fourth street says:

"It did not require an entire box of Doan's Kidney Pills to entirely end backache which had troubled me for a considerable length of time. I procured the remedy at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets, and my advice to anyone in need of a kidney cure is to try Doan's Kidney Pills and they will not be disappointed at the results obtained."

The scenery along the river is beginning to show up beautifully.

Friday's Pittsburgh coal fleet is made up as follows: T. J. Wood, 7 barges, 1 flat; John Moren, 10 barges, 1 flat; John Brown, 8 barges, 2 flats; Carbon, 11 flats; Robert Jenkins, 6 barges, 2 flats; Ranger, 7 barges, 1 flat; Voyager, 8 barges, 2 flats; Tom Dodsworth, 15 barges, 2 flats.

The big Pittsburgh coal combine contracted to furnish the gas works at Evansville a big lot of coal. A. E. McLean of Rochester, N. Y., was one of the 2,307 soldiers who embarked on the Sultana at Vicksburg at 10 a. m., April 22, 1865. It has been generally supposed that the explosion on the Sultana was an explosion of the boilers, but Mr. McLean says that a torpedo had been secreted in the coal, which caused the explosion when thrown into the furnace.

BEST SPRING MEDICINE

Our Leading Druggist, J. J. Pecor, Out of His Vast Stock and Extensive Knowledge of Medicines Recommends Vinol as the Best.

"At this season of the year," said Mr. J. C. Pecor the other evening, "there isn't a man, woman or child in Maysville who does not need a medicine to purify and enrich the blood, to induce an appetite, to promote digestion, and create strength, and we are safe in saying we have never sold anything in our store equal to Vinol for this purpose."

This new way of administering the vital principles of cod liver oil has wrought a wonderful change in the field of medicine. There is no need to take greasy oil, emulsions or poisonous drugs to purify and enrich the blood and create health and strength, for we guarantee that pure, simple, and delicious preparation, Vinol, will do it, or your money will be returned.

Mrs. Rosa Lavigne of Burlington, Vt., writes: "Vinol is the best spring medicine I ever have used; it creates an appetite, purifies the blood and takes away all feeling of lassitude. My work, which seemed a burden before taking Vinol, is now a pleasure."

Mr. W. J. Stewart of Chelsea, Mass., writes: "I was all run down and in a debilitated condition; Vinol quickly built me up and brought back health and strength."

Mr. J. B. Keener, Augusta, Ga., writes: "When one gets all run down, loses appetite, feels listless, worn out and nervous, I have found nothing so good as Vinol to restore strength and health."

Said Mr. Pecor: "I could go on quoting from hundreds of such letters, and I wish I could persuade every person in Maysville to try Vinol this spring on our guarantee to return money if they are not benefited." J. C. Pecor, Druggist.

The first central station for incandescent lighting was built by the Edison Company on Holman Viaduct, London, in 1882.

Owing to heavy port charges at Beirut, and relatively high freight rates on the Lebanon Railway during the harvest some 4,000 to 6,000 camels, each with a burden of 500 pounds of grain, daily pass between the interior of Syria and the sea via Nazareth. The camel driver, however, claims half of the load as his reward, and the farmer, after paying taxes, for seed, etc., has scant compensation for his labor.

At a recent fashionable wedding in London the hats of the bridesmaids were trimmed with natural flowers, and it is predicted that the style will be popular next summer.

"DO IT TODAY."
The time-worn injunction, "Never put off till tomorrow what you can do today," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it today!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it TODAY, and let that remedy be Dr. Hoche's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure, as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. For sale at Henry W. Ray's Apothecary Dispensary.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition, beauty, vigor and cheerfulness. It soon disappears when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a Home of Swamp-Root pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

How to Ward Off an Attack of Rheumatism.

"For years when spring time came on and I went into gardening, I was sure to have an attack of rheumatism and every attack was more severe than the preceding one," says Josie McDonald of Man, Logan county, West Va. "I tried everything with no relief whatever, until I procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and the first application gave me ease, and before the first bottle was used I felt like a new person. Now I feel that I am cured, but I always keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in my house, and when I feel any symptoms of a return I soon drive it away with one or two applications of this liniment." For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

The new C. and O. Depot at South Portsmouth will be built of buff brick.

DEFENDED HER FATHER
Woman Attacked Postoffice Inspector in Judge Cochran's Court

Sarah Holcomb, a pretty mountain girl, created a scene in the Government Building at Covington Friday afternoon.

Her father, former Postmaster at Malden, Jackson county, had been convicted of rifling the mail, the conviction being had on the testimony of Inspector Oldfield.

The girl had just come from Judge Cochran's room, where she had unsuccessfully pleaded for mercy for her father, when she saw the Inspector and flew at him like a tigress, directing a savage blow full at his face.

Oldfield dodged enough to avoid the force of the blow, but his jaw was grazed by the woman's fist. As she gathered herself for another attack she was seized by the Court officials and taken from the room.

Inspector Oldfield, speaking of the incident later, said:

"Ordinarily, I think I would let a woman hit me. But when I saw this girl coming at me in the manner she did, I was perfectly willing to step aside. I have no doubt at all that if she had struck me full in the face I should have gone down if not out. I admire the girl's courage and her affection for her father, but I am not going to find her and tell her so."
